

At Diversity, we believe dressing properly for class is an important part of your child's dance education. Please read the following guidelines thoroughly as it is mandatory for all students to follow our dress code.

Hair

All Dancers should have their hair securely pulled back in any style (Ballet specified below). Please use a headband or barrettes for short hair. We love ponytails, buns, braids or any secure hair style for long hair. When hair is in your dancer's face it can be distracting, and their Teacher can't see their smiles!

Fitted Dance-Wear

Please be sure student's dance-wear is fitted to the body. This allows our Teachers to check proper placement and improve our Dancer's technique. Everyday clothes like T-shirts are not dance-wear. Dance-wear should be made out of spandex and in the style of Yoga/Athletic wear. Dancers will not be permitted to dance in jeans as they restrict movements and can rip!

Flexible Dress Code

Half the fun for our little Dancers (& big Dancers too!) is picking out their new dance outfit! We want our Dancers to feel unique and confident, so we do not specify colour or style of any attire (Ballet specified below). If your Dancer owns dance shoes that don't match our dress code, they are welcome to wear them in class until they outgrow them or until required at Recital. If your Dancer is uncomfortable with any part of our dress code, please let our office know. We are happy to provide alternatives to ensure your Dancer feels confident and comfortable, as we want to help foster a positive body image.

Dance Stores

Dance Attire & Shoe Stores: Diversity Office, City Dancewear off of Crowchild or Bodythings in Westland & Kingsland. Fitted Dance Wear: Athletic sections of stores such as Walmart, Superstore, Old Navy, Gap etc. Lululemon or Amazon. Amazon: If purchasing dance shoes on Amazon, we suggest Capezio or Bloch for quality shoes.

Used Shoe Sale at Diversity

Diversity's Used Shoe Sale facilitated through our office will be CLOSED this Fall due to COVID-19. Instead, we have started a private Facebook group for Diversity Parents and Dancers to buy & sell gently used shoes, dance-wear & costumes. Please join Diversity Dance Buy & Sell. We hope to re-open our in-studio shoe sale in the future!

NEW Equipment

This season, to limited the spread of COVID-19, Diversity has removed shared equipment to limit cross-contact and contamination. Dancers will be required to bring a yoga mat to some class styles, or be required to purchase a prop bag (see below).

Bring Your Own Water Bottle

Due to COVID-19, Dancers are highly encouraged to bring a water bottle. They may refill them at the water bottle filler.
